HON. JACOB THOMPSON.

His Return Home and Enthusiastic Reception.

His Speech to the People of Oxford.

We have before reported to our readers the arrival at his home in Oxford, Miss., of Hon. Jacob Thompson. He was received by a large concourse of people, and welcomed in their behalf by Col. L. Q. C. Lamar. In reply Mr. Thompson made some extended remarks, most of which we find room for as follows. He said:

I have come back to see you and talk with you over the past, the present and the prospect of the future. In this interchange of views, of hopes and fears, I hoped and expected to derive pleasure. I assure you that, though in my absence I have wandered far, seen and read a great deal, I have never forgotten you, your delightful village, clothed all the time however, in my imagination in the weeds of mourning, and this charming climate. The greenest spots in my past life are to be found here, and wherever I have been, the desire with me has ever been the same, that when my last sun had set and life's fitful fever was o'er, my body might here find a resting place. I went to see the greatest living nations of the earth and the countries where the mightiest people of the past lie buried and I found pleasure and instruction in taking a survey of the whole. Though many valuable lessons were learned, yet a deep melancholy followed me and weighed down my spirits. I could never forget I was an American citizen, nor cease to repeat the line of the poet, somewhat paraphrased, America, "with all thy faults, I love thee still!" At no one time was I tempted to change my nationality—I was born on this soil and this country is my birth-right and my inheritance, and by no act or deed of mine did I wish to forfeit it. A man may have all that money can buy and be surrounded by all the luxuries and refinements that taste or appetite can suggest, yet if he has no country, no place or Government, he is poor indeed. Thus in my wanderings I was often tempted to appropriate to myself the words of Him, who was more than man, "the foxes have holes, the birds of the air have nests, but I have not where to lay my head." Though I have endeavored all my life to live with a conscience void of offense toward God or man, yet I have suffered persecutions, but I trust I have borne them with patience. I have been reviled, but I have not reviled again, hoping all things, enduring all things.

But here you ask me, and very pertinently, why I have not returned among you earlier. This question, you at once perceive, leads me into the field of politics, into a review of the action of the Government and the conduct of its officials. There I am in the condition of an unfortunate Irishman who was a sailor on board of a ship at sea, and the Captain ordered him aloft to arrange some part of the rigging. After reaching a considerable hight on the main mast his hold gave way and down he came on deck with a heavy crash. The Captain frightened, ran to him and in sympathizing tones said, "Patrick, are you dead?" 'No,' said Pat, "I am not dead, but I am speechless!" In Pat's condition, I find myself at this time in regard to politics and the management of the Government for the last four years—I am speechless. In the late struggle for self government we went to sea in a hastily constructed boat, which for four years, gallantly bore the buffetings and beatings of the winds and waves, and finally went down amid the breakers, attracting the admiration of the world. We, the passengers, were thrown out into the turbulent waters and have been gradually picked up and hauled on board the ship Nationality, where we are permitted to breathe and live, but not allowed any lot or employment in sailing the new ship, on which we are embarked. Few among us can hold office, a great number cannot vote. Possibly this is for the best, and in the end it will prove a great blessing. You are relieved of all responsibility in helping to govern the country. Purer and better and wiser citizens, in their own estimation at least, will freely undertake to discharge all the onerous duties of office and relieve you from all its anxieties and perplexities. This state of things, I hope, will result greatly to the advantage of our community, increasing its wealth, happiness and security. While I was in Paris, an intelligent Frenchman undertook to prove to me that under the French Empire the people were the freest, happiest and most prosperous in the world, secure in all personal rights, in the rights of property, person and reputation, each man allowed to pursue happiness in his own way, and certain of reaping the fruits of his industry. He was debarred from one right only and that was for his good and welfare. He had no voice in the conduct of public affairs. He could hold no public meetings or criticise the acts of the Emperor or his officials. Hence he was exempt from all care and anxiety on this head, and consequently the Frenchman was a happy man. Why cannot we, in the conquered South, reason and feel in the same way? Under such circumstances my opinion is that we ought to imitate, as far as practicable, the example of the great King David. When his child was sick nigh unto death he mourned, fasted, prostrated himself upon the ground, and put on sack cloth, but when the child died, he arose, washed himself, put on gay clothing, and appeared to his attendants with a cheerful countenance. So, while our contest lasted, we suffered, fasted, prayed, shed our blood and spent our treasure freely. Now that it is over, let us meet the actualities of life with a brave, cheerful and manly heart, submitting to the inevitable and exerting ourselves with energy to take care of ourselves and families. Owing to the institution of slavery which once obtained amongst us, our people have been misunderstood and greatly traduced abroad. Let us, by industry, skill and economy, reap all the advantages which have been placed within our grasp by the bountiful hand of Providence in our prolific soil and genial climate. Let us, by the practice of virtue and sobriety, and all the charities of life, disarm all criticism. Let us maintain a high standard of education and morality for our youth that they may be fitted for all the duties and responsibilities which may by possibility devolve upon them. Above all, let us struggle with a hearty good will to build up the waste places and secure prosperity and plenty to our people. In all ages the God of battles has made some curious and inexplicable decisions. But it is not for us to find out the reasons which controlled Him. It is ours only to obey the decision, because from it there is no appeal. In the late war, the power of arms decided that we should remain one people, now and forever. The God of battles decided the case in favor of Union. Now the true Christian must justify the ways of God to man, and therefore he must say it was wisest and best that the case should be so decided. From this position a duty is devolved upon every man. Each individual is bound to contribute his mite to make this people a great people, strong, happy, prosperous and glorious. I think we may all hold the firm assurance in our minds that the public conscience in the governing section of the United States will some day be awakened, that prejudice and uncharitableness and ill will in the end give way to kindness and brotherly love, that the heel of the oppressor will be raised, that our State Government will be placed under the influence of the virtue, intelligence, religion and wealth of the country, and we shall be placed on an equality with all other citizens of the United States. A great destiny awaits the people of America; we ought and we must contribute our part in working it out. We are not called on to sacrifice our independence of character, our honor or our self respect, but simply to follow the plain dictates of duty, and wait, and I feel as certain as the night succeeds the day, so certain will the Government still need you. Only be true and faithful to yourselves and your whole country, and be prepared to act well your part when that day arrives.

ROME.

Pius IX.—His Fiftieth Anniversary Mass—The City Crowded with Visitors—The Ceremonies in St. Peter's—Congratulations of European Sovereigns—His Holiness' Reception—Distinguished Guests.

From the New York Herald.]

ROME, April 15, 1869.—There has been more powder burned in honor of Pius IX. and the fiftieth anniversary of his priesthood during the last two nights than there was at the battle of Mentana in defense of his throne, and by day the festivities have been really imposing, as much from the judicious arrangement of the demonstrations of rejoicing as from the crowds of spectators from all parts of the world who have congregated in the Holy City to witness them. The stations on all the lines converging to Rome have been invaded to such a degree during the last few days that all control over the travelers has been lost; tickets and distinction of classes became mere idle formalities and the over-laden trains moving masses of confusion. No doubt the defective arrangements of the directors of the Roman railways have prevented many travelers from getting here who were so disposed, but in spite of deficient accommodation quite enough of the inhabitants of the towns and villages of the environs of Rome and of the neighboring Italian provinces have arrived to give a popular character to the crowds congregated wherever there has been anything to see, and especially in the ample church of St. Peter, on the morning of the 11th, when the Pope with much emotion went through the ceremony of his messa novella on the fiftieth anniversary of its first performance. Never were such numbers seen collected in that vast temple before, for the great central have, which during the grand Papal ceremonies is generally kept clear, for the Pope to pass, by a double line of soldiers, was unguarded and entirely occupied by a dense but orderly crowd, which became a serried mass around the high altar and the confession, which were ornamented for the occasion with a profusion of the most exquisite flowers. The only reserved spaces were for the accommodation of the royal family of Naples and Parma, the diplomatic body and a few favorite foreigners of distinction, among whom the Prussian special envoy received nearly royal honors. At a quarter to eight a.m. the Pope left his apartments, accompanied by the Palatine Cardinals Carelli and Antonelli, the complete corps of court prelates and the Senator and Conservators of Rome. A murmur thrilled through the church as his Holiness, visibly affected, ascended the steps of the high altar. During the mass the Pope administered the holy sacrament to eight poor boys belonging to the hospital of Tatagiovanni, and to about 200 ladies and gentlemen who anxiously solicited such a consolatory distinction. It was on intoning the subsequent Te Deum that Pio Nono's emotion became evident to all around him, and the tears which flowed from his upturned eyes excited a corresponding sentiment of sympathy in the thousands of spectators whose attention was concentrated on the person of the Supreme Pontiff. The cannon of St. Angelo announced to the city the completion of the religious ceremony in St. Peter's, after which the Pope repaired to the sacristy, where a collation was offered to him and to the most distinguished persons present by the Dean and chapter of the church. The refreshments were calculated for 1000 persons, but the crowd at the door rendered it imprudent for all the guests to avail themselves of their invitations.

The Pope withdrew to his private apartments after the breakfast, but by no means to repose, for congratulations and messages of all sorts were continually arriving by telegraph from all parts of the world, which had to be communicated to him. The Queen of England's felicitations were sent by the wire directly to the Pope, as were those of several other sovereigns; but most of the Catholic courts had special representatives, or their resident ambassadors were entrusted with autograph letters for this purpose. Thus the Marquis de Banneville acted for France, Count Von Trauttmansdorf for Austria, and Count Pyche de Petteghen for Belgium, but the King of Prussia sent his Highness the Duke of Ratibor with a letter and a magnificent porcelain vase of royal Berlin ware. The Count D'Arco was special Envoy for Bavaria, and Russia was represented by the Grand Duke Vladimur. The King and Queen (ex) of Spain, and the Prince of the Asturias, the Kings of Holland, Saxony and Wurtemberg, the Empress of Mexico, the Grand Dukes of Tuscany and Mecklenburg-Strelitz, and the Prince of Monaco, were among the complimentary sovereigns; but it would be an endless task to register all the magnates, civil and ecclesiastical dignitaries, public bodies, municipal representatives and pious associations of all denominations and of all Catholic countries, who availed themselves of the rapidity of electric communication for this exceptional occurrence. Among these messages was the following one from Baltimore, via Atlantic cable: "Papæ Pio IX—Roman Sanctissimo Pio de Quinquagenario Sacerdoni jubilantes gratulantur, salutem incolumitatemque præsentes Filli nationis Teutonicæ per provincias Americæ Unitas dispersi, Baltimore."

At five p m. his Holiness adjourned to the great hall over the vestibule of St. Peter's to receive in special audience the Catholic deputations of all denominations, conditions and countries, amounting to some thousands of persons, who burst out into enthusiastic applause as the Pope ascended the throne prepared for him. Fortunately the addresses were not read, otherwise the ceremony would have been endless. The Pope delivered a speech in general terms of affection and gratitude, and then looked out of the central window of the hall upon the crowd assembled in the piazza below to listen to the hymn expressly composed by the Maestro Gounod for this occasion, and which was being performed by seven military bands and a thousand soldiers as a singing chorus.

Pio Nono's appearance at the balcony, whence he usually gives his benediction, was saluted by the wavings of handkerchiefs and the vivas of the crowd, and he gratified their enthusiasm by coming forward a second time before leaving the hall. The attraction of the evening was the girandola on the Janiculum. Every available spot commanding a view of the fireworks was crowded, but they were considered to be less successful than usual, and the grand discharge of rockets reserved for the finale unfortunately got ignited before the right time.

All sorts of anecdotes about what was done and said during the festivities, of which I have described a part, are in circulation, and two remarks are attributed to his Holiness rather pungent towards Victor Emanuel and Italy. Pio Nono informed a diplomatist who inquired what present his Majesty had sent, that King Victor Emanuel only sent to the Vatican to intercede for assassins. To the Senator at Rome his Holiness observed, "Italy has published her Green Book (the official collection of diplomatic and ministerial documents) and we will publish a golden book, which shall contain a list of the addresses and offerings of our subjects and of the sovereigns and people of the Catholic world on this commemorative recurrence."

GEN. LEE'S INTERVIEW.

Interesting Scene at the White House—Interview of Gen. Lee with the President—Cordial Meeting of the Great Commanders—Indignation of Office-Seekers.

From the New York Herald of the 2d.]

Gen. Robert E. Lee, late commander of the Confederate army, arrived here at an early hour this morning from Baltimore, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Daggart, old Baltimore friends of the General. They proceeded at once to the residence of a friend in Georgetown. About 11 o'clock Gen. Lee drove to the Executive Mansion, and, sending in his card, was admitted to the President without delay. When he entered the ante-room at the White House there were many persons present waiting to see the President, among them several members of Congress. Lee was recognized by some of them and a general buzz ran around the room, "There's Gen. Lee—wonder what he wants here?" Gen. Dent was assiduous in his attentions and lost no time in getting Lee's card before the President. There were some half dozen persons, mostly Congressmen, in the President's room at the time, on various sorts of business. Nearly all of them were after office and wanted to press their claims upon the President. As soon as he got Lee's card, however, he said the Congressional office hunters, "gentlemen, you will have to excuse me. I have an engagement with Gen. Lee, who is now waiting outside to keep it, and I wish our interview to be private." This was a broad hint for the Congressmen to retire. They picked up their hats and beat a hasty and somewhat demoralized retreat towards the door, uttering curses not loud but deep at the intrusion of the big rebel guest when they were fixing up their little business.

"The President," said one Senator, "sees us in a crowd, and thereby exposes our private business; but when a rebel comes along he is given a private audience."

"Yes," said another, "and we are driven out as if we had no business here, when we are looking after the interests of the country."

"That's the way," said a member of the House, resignedly.

"Being a rebel is a good card of admission here, it appears," observed an indignant citizen who had been waiting patiently for some time to see the President.

The feeling in the crowd was one of undisguised indignation that Lee should go in ahead of all the rest, but this unquestionably arose from the fact that many of them had been disappointed in getting an interview. Gen. Lee remained closeted with the Executive nearly half an hour. What the object of the meeting really was no one seems to know. Some declare it was merely a mark of respect which the late rebel chieftain desired to pay to the President. Others profess to have information that leads them to the conclusion that Grant consulted Lee concerning the bothersome reconstruction enigma in Virginia, and that Lee very fully unfolded his views as to what should be the course of the Government on that question, and what the people of the Old Dominion really required. The people who pretended to be thus posted hint that Lee made some rich disclosures as to the chief difficulty to reconstruction in that State, and that he spoke of some of the politicians there as being utterly corrupt and incompetent. There is still another story as to the object of the interview, one which looks entirely improbable, but which is, nevertheless, credited by some people here. It is to the effect that Grant has requested Lee to act as a special commissioner of our Government to Cuba, to ascertain the real condition of affairs in that island. This seems so entirely improbable as to be hardly worth repeating, but as it may possibly be true I put it on record.

External Application,

No internal adjuvants being required in any case, only to regulate the bowels, if constipated, or in Diarrhea and Dysentery.

The PILES, while astonishingly prevalent in their various forms amongst all classes of both sexes, are, at the same time, the most distressing, frequently dangerous, and hitherto most difficult of cure.

Persons who suffer any length of time with the Piles generally try everything they can learn of purporting to cure the disease, yet realize no permanent advantage therefrom. They have been told professionally, perhaps, there was "no permanent cure for Piles," and consequently have despaired of any future cessation from pain and suffering.

To all such a SPECIFIC is offered for their relief. The

BUCKEYE SALVE

Is a strictly scientific combination of well known remedial agents, and the proprietors have no hesitation in saying the BUCKEYE SALVE is the

ONLY INFALLIBLE SPECIFIC

Ever discovered for that disease, and which cures by outward application only, and that in time to come, as in the past, it will stand the test of trial without a failure, to perform all the proprietors claim for it, if the directions are attended to.

A large number of gentlemen throughout the country of high character and influence have voluntarily attested to its efficacy in their own cases, not from hearsay, and whose certificates may be seen by reference to the publications.

The proprietors will forward to any address one bottle, postpaid, on receipt of the retail price, $1 00 per bottle.

A Liberal Discount to Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

SOUTH AND WEST.

To the Owners of Real Estate in Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama and Arkansas:

THE COMPANY KNOWN TO THE PUBLIC as the "Mississippi Valley Navigation Company of the South and West," is organized under a charter from the State of Louisiana. This charter authorizes a capital stock of five hundred thousand dollars, with the privilege of extension to one million. That the public may know the exact object of the Company, the third article of the charter is given entire, as follows:

"The object of this Company is to construct or otherwise to procure and maintain one or more steamboats, or other vessels, to run on and navigate the Mississippi river, or its tributaries, for the purpose of carrying freight, mails and passengers; to construct docks wharves, buildings and such other constructions as may be necessary to the building and repairing of vessels, and generally to exercise such incidental powers and privileges as are hereby or may be conferred on them for the purposes aforesaid."

The Company propose, under the provisions of this charter to construct a line of steamers to run between the different ports on the Mississippi river and its tributaries. They will be constructed upon the low-pressure principle; they will carry less steam; they will make better time, and be in all respects more safe than any description of boats ever placed upon our waters. Divided into distinct compartments, if disaster, whether by fire or snags, shall happen to one, the boat is not endangered. In case of fire, apparatus for turning steam upon it will be provided, and it is demonstrated that steam is the most effective extinguisher of fire. In case one compartment is broken through by contact with snags, and fills with water, the others are not endangered, and the boat cannot sink, as pumps, provided for such an emergency, will be in instant operation. Safety to passengers and freight is a great end, worthy of the struggle of the people of the Mississippi Valley.

Nearly three hundred thousand dollars in money and work has already been subscribed to the capital stock of the Company. The Louisiana Legislature has passed a bill subscribing one hundred thousand dollars of stock to the Company. An additional sum of that amount will, without a doubt, be subscribed by the same body. The Company have resolved to take lands for stock, and this is the feature to which they desire to call the attention of owners of real estate. In the Southern States, on account of the disorganized condition of labor, lands are an incumbrance. Vast tracts that yield no revenue to the proprietors, pay exorbitant taxes, and thus cripple their only productive resources. This Company propose to take these lands at a fair valuation and issue to the owners their stock in lieu. If lands shall enhance in value, so will the stock enhance in value, and thus the land proprietor will carry in his pocket the equivalent of his lands, to be converted into money or property without delay. The success of this great enterprise is beyond question. The stockholder, in addition to the benefit of the enhanced value of his lands, will be part owner of a line of boats, and be entitled to dividends in their earnings.

Persons wishing to exchange lands for the stock of the Company will send to the Agent at Memphis a description of them, their productive qualities, the timber, bottom or upland; whether overflowed or not; if overflowed, what proportion; how near to county-town, to railroad, depot, river, and all facts necessary to afford the Company a satisfactory idea of the land. This may be done by certificates of reliable, disinterested persons residing in the neighborhood. The present actual value of the land may be proved in the same manner. The party offering lands must state in his proposition the lowest figures he will take. The Company will not give exorbitant prices. The titles must be unencumbered by judgments, mortgages, deeds of trust, tax titles, or otherwise. This may be shown by official certificates of judges, clerks, sheriffs, or the opinions of respectable attorneys. This is believed to be the best opportunity to dispose of surplus lands in the South and West that has yet been or can be offered.

Many of the best and wealthiest citizens of the South and West are warmly embarked in the enterprise. The General Headquarters of the Company are in New Orleans, but agencies exist in all the principal cities. The enterprise has been endorsed by Underwriters, Chambers of Commerce, Engineers, Mechanics, practical navigators, and all classes of practical men.

The foregoing facts are submitted to the public in the confident belief that they will be understood and appreciated.

BUTTER.

THE

ECONOMY BUTTER CO

Ask the attention of all interested in the reduction of the extravagant cost of Butter, to their practical and economical system of making pure prime Butter by aid of the

EXTRACT OF BUTTER PLANT.

A brief allusion to the origin of this important discovery may not prove uninteresting. Among the authenticated records of the renowned Captain Cook's voyage around the world, is found the statement, that while sojourning for a short time on the Brazilian Coast of South America, he observed the natives using, in the preparation of their food, a peculiar oil, which, upon examination, he found to possess the appearance, taste and flavor of Butter; upon further inquiry, however, he ascertained that it was simply a substance that the natives distilled in a crude and imperfect manner from a rich and luxuriant plant that grew spontaneously and abundantly in that warm tropical country. A few years ago an eminent French chemist, while on a professional visit to the tropics, made numerous experiments with this remarkable production of nature, and succeeded in extracting a concentrated essence of the plant. The formula for its preparation, and the Sole Right for the sale in this country are the exclusive property of this company, by whom it was purchased from the original discoverer. We claim for this remarkable, yet simple and perfectly harmless preparation—

1st. That by its use a net gain of from 50 to 200 per cent. is made in the manufacture of Butter.

2d. That Butter, which from age or whatever cause, may be strong, rancid, streaked or coarse-grained, and comparatively useless for general use, by the aid of this Extract is restored to its original freshness and sweetness, fine grain and even color.

3d. By the use of this Extract, one pound of delicious, fresh Butter is actually made from one pint of milk.

4th. That a pure and excellent table Butter can be made, at a cost of from 15 to 20 cents per pound. The chief expense wherein being Butter, which is the essential base.

5th. That Butter manufactured by the aid of this Extract is equal in every respect to the best Butter made by the ordinary method.

6th. The Extract, after thorough analysis, by able chemists, is pronounced perfectly free from any deleterious substance, the ingredients being purely of a vegetable nature.

7th. In proof of the foregoing assertions, the factory of this company is making one ton of Butter per day, which meets with ready sale in the New York market, and is consumed from the tables of the first hotels, restaurants and private families in this city and elsewhere.

A sample package of the EXTRACT (sufficient to make fifty pounds of Butter), with full directions for use, will be sent to any address on the receipt of $1.

CAUTION.—As all articles of real merit are subject to spurious imitations, we would specially caution the public against counterfeits and worthless imitations, advertised as powders, compounds, etc., as the Extract of the Butter Plant is prepared and sold only by

MEMPHIS APPEAL

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 6, 1869

OUR lawyer friends will find a synopsis of the Supreme Court decisions on our third page.

COL. B. S. OWEN, of Lynchburg, an accomplished gentleman and one of the clearest-headed and best hearted business men in Virginia, has been solicited to run for Congress in his District. We hope he will and, that he will be elected.

A COMMUNICATION upon judicial reform will be found on our third page. It should have appeared yesterday but was crowded out. It is of interest to every one of our readers, and we hope will be read and pondered by them as seriously as its suggestions merit.

THERE was an attempt made last night to patch up the quarrel between the HUNTER and BARBOUR LEWIS Radicals. Like oil and water, they refused to mix, and so the Hunterites, headed by their spiritual adviser, retired to the classic precinct of Buzzard Roost, and the Lewisites, strong in numbers as in aroma d'Afrique, perambulated the streets, yelling defiance at their opponents, and making much amusement for the few who were lookers on.

WE desire to impress upon our people the necessity for a prompt and faithful compliance with the call and suggestions of the County Executive Committee. Meetings should be held this evening in every ward and civil district in the county, at which delegates should be elected to the Convention of Saturday next, the result of which we hope will be such as the public interests demand. We enjoin upon the Secretaries of the several meetings the importance of furnishing us with correct reports of their proceedings for publication, not only as a matter of news, but for future reference.

WE warn the Irishmen of Memphis against all attempts to inveigle them into so-called Loyal Leagues, or Union Leagues. A few renegade Irishmen in Nashville have taken to that discreditable and disreputable business, and are circulating documents and papers with a view to prepare the Irish people of Tennessee for a visit from them, and for their solicitations in behalf of Radicalism. They have formed themselves into what they term an "Irish Union League," with the following named officers: T. MCKINLEY, Chairman; B. J. SHERIDAN, Secretary; and JOHN S. MULLER, Treasurer. Of these gentry we warn our Irish fellow-citizens to beware.

FOR THE information and guidance of the officers and those who may attend the ward and district meetings this evening, we publish the following, which is the correct apportionment of delegates to the County Democratic Convention to be held on Saturday next: First ward, ten delegates; Second, five; Third, ten; Fourth, six; Fifth, eight; Sixth, five; Seventh, six; Eighth, five; Ninth, two; Tenth, one; total, fifty-eight. First district, two delegates; Second, two; Third, two; Fourth, two; Sixth, two; Seventh, two; Eighth, two; Ninth, two; Tenth, two; Eleventh, two; Twelfth, two; Thirteenth, two; Sixteenth, two; Seventeenth, two; total, twenty-eight. Grand total, eighty-six. No proxies admitted to represent the appointees.

MR. JOSIAH DE LOACH, our new Postmaster, has, we are happy to learn, filed a satisfactory bond with the Department and will enter upon his duties immediately. Mr. WILLIAM B. GREENLAW and Mr. NAPOLEON HILL are his bondsmen, than whom none better could be had. While upon the subject of the postoffice we will take occasion to express our satisfaction at the general conduct of its affairs by Col. GIST, the retiring Postmaster. He has been in charge for some time before and since the conclusion of the war, and has so conducted its affairs as to merit the confidence of the authorities and the people of Memphis. We are glad to know that he has determined upon continuing with us and that he will become permanently identified with some one of our business interests.

THERE is need of reform in the postal arrangements of the South and Southwest. Such as are now in force are a detriment rather than a benefit to the people. For instance, the Little Rock Gazette says, "fifty thousand dollars and more of the people's money are paid out to get a mail to Little Rock, one of the most important centers in the West, and the result is one mail a week—a mail on Saturday and a mail on Monday amounts to little more than one." The same is true of West Tennessee, North Mississippi and Alabama. The utmost irregularity characterises the distribution as well as carriage of mail matter. To illustrate the contract system in vogue in Arkansas, we quote again from the Gazette. It says: "CHIDISTER gets fifteen thousand dollars for his daily mail contract from Memphis overland to Little Rock, which has so far proved an abortion and shame. There are about three months in a year when a careful and energetic snipe could pass over that road with a very light mail. Were the fifteen thousand dollars devoted to this sham contract and swindle on the Government and the people, appropriated to the White river route, the river contractors say they could afford the State capital, and thence the other parts of the State, a regular and full tri-weekly mail. Again CHIDISTER has an expensive contract of a daily mail, that goes over the road six times a week, from here to Camden, with nothing, when only one mail, in that time, comes into the State. This is a grossness of mismanagement in the postal system of Arkansas to which we feel called upon in behalf of our people to call the attention of the authorities, particularly of our members of Congress. Such a farce, sham and imposition, in the name of "mail service" was never practiced upon the country since the origin of the Government. Twenty-eight thousand dollars are given to a tri weekly mail on the Arkansas river which may benefit the people below this city but does the State generally and this city no good. The White river mail line, our sole reliable dependence, which is certain at at all times, and in all seasons, by means of the railroad and the perpetual navigation of White river, gets only twelve thousand dollars. That this is mismanagement, if not fraud, a child can comprehend."

JOHN RUSSELL YOUNG has sued the New York Sun, Philadelphia Press and Bulletin, the New York Evening Post, and Cincinnati Commercial for damages; and may, perhaps, the Louisville Courier-Journal. He may also possibly come farther South and enter suits against the Nashville, Memphis and New Orleans papers that published the correspondence. In each instance he puts his figures at $100 000. If he succeeds he will class among the millionaires of the country. If only for the sake of establishing his personal reputation we hope he will succeed, at least in the original suit with the Sun, which paper, it appears upon abundant and good authority, published the correspondence from most vindictive motives. Many of the papers above mentioned have withdrawn their strictures upon Mr. YOUNG, based as they were upon the libellous publication of the Sun, and have fully vindicated him from what Mr. GREELEY (who ought to know) considers a foul and baseless aspersion.

THE Nashville Republican Banner of Wednesday, in an article reviewing Judge Shackleford's letter, says there will no be a regularly organized Democratic ticket for the Supreme Bench. We would ask our contemporary on what authority this announcement is made? The State Central Executive Committee made one blunder in an attempt to fasten negro suffrage upon the Democratic platform. We hope that body, for which we entertain very high respect, will not make another, and forestall a free expression of opinion by the Democratic voters of the State in reference to the future incumbency of the Supreme Bench.—Memphis Appeal.

To which the Nashville Banner of Monday responds as follows:

1. We answer our contemporary, that the announcement is made upon the authority of common sense.

2. There is no "State Central Executive Committee" in existence that we are aware of, except the Republican or Radical Committee.

3. But when it was in existence, that committee to which the APPEAL refers made no attempt to "fasten negro suffrage upon the Democratic platform." It was "fastened" upon it by the first Democratic Convention in Tennessee, two years ago, (which nominated Etheridge), in the following section, which the editor of the APPEAL may find by referring to his own files:

That our colored fellow-citizens, being now citizens of the United States and citizens of the State of Tennessee and voters of this State, are entitled to all the rights and privileges of citizens under the laws and Constitution of the United States and of the State of Tennessee. [Cheers.]

4. So far as we are concerned, our contemporary is at perfect liberty to arrange his Democratic platform to suit himself. The "body" for which it entertains very high respect, not controlling the registration, will be hardly in a situation, we imagine, under the circumstances, to "forestall a free expression of opinion by the Democratic voters" in reference to anything.

(1.) We thought as much. We thought it was made upon the authority of some such scape-goat. Common sense is made to father too many mistakes now-a-days; this is one of the instances.

(2) Our cotemporary is in error. Within a week we have seen a communication from that body, one of the members of which is a resident of this city—Mr. M. D. L. STEWART.

(3) We remember the quoted section, and with regret. But we also remember that a Convention of the party held in June of last year, in a clause of the platform then adopted, repealed it in these words: "The investiture of the negroes with the right of suffrage is a gross usurpation * * * * The white men of America are entitled to superiority and supremacy in the administration of the Federal and State Governments." This was the policy of the party until the State Executive Committee in its celebrated address, sought to re-saddle it with the negro incubus.

(4) We will not arrange a platform to suit ourselves, and it was because we neither desire to do so ourselves nor permit others for themselves, if we can help it, that we thus nudged the Committee. Whether the registration can be controlled or not, we are in favor of a free and full expression of opinion upon all subjects and questions of public policy and importance by the Democratic party of the State.

THE COURTS.

LAW COURT—H. S. Lee, Judge.—The trial of the case of Connell et al. vs. Doyle et al. was resumed and concluded yesterday morning, resulting in a verdict for the plaintiff to the amount of $320 00. The cases next in turn on the calendar were called and determined up to 1664 inclusive. The judgments and orders entered in the above cases were small and of an unimportant character. The case of William Elliott vs. G. W. F. Cook, which came up Monday morning on motion before his Honor the Judge, has not yet been decided. The nature of the case seems to be this: Elliott, a printer by profession, placed into the hands of the defendant Cook for collection a large number of accounts against individuals residing in Memphis; Elliott alleges that the greater portion of said accounts have been collected, and that Cook has failed to make a proper return. Cook in reply avers that the amount collected by him on said accounts only reaches the sum of between seventy and eighty dollars; that the sum so collected, with the exception of a few dollars, has been appropriated to the payment of the costs arising from suits instituted before G. W. F. Cook, Justice of the Peace, upon the accounts remaining unpaid. This cause will come up to-day as soon as court convenes, and be finally disposed of, after which the regular calendar will be called.

MUNICIPAL COURT—Geo. W. Waldran, Judge.—This Court held a short session yesterday but did not entertain any business of importance. Several interlocutory orders were entered, etc. Court then adjourned until Monday next, the 10th inst.

CRIMINAL COURT.—Wm. Hunter, Judge.—The jury in the Doran case brought in a verdict of "not guilty" late Tuesday evening. Court did not convene yesterday, but will meet to-day and resume the regular calendar.

NASHVILLE.

NASVILLE, May 5.—The first race today was the stake for all ages, two mile heats, entrance $50, for a purse of $750. Crossland 1-1, Ontario 2 2, Agnes Donovan 3-3, Counterproof distanced. Time, 3:37¼, 3:47¼. The second race was for a purse of $250, mile heats, free for all ages; Sue Dougherty 3 1-1, Baffler 1 2 3, Rochester 2 3 2. Time, 1:51, 1:50½, 1:51. Sue Dougherty was the favorite. Rain fell during this race.

Mr. Mercer retires from the editorial chair of the Press and Times, Radical, tomorrow, and will be succeeded by Gresham and Bovell, of East Tennessee.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Rear-Admiral Hoff advises the Navy Department, under date of Havana, April 21st, on board the flag-ship Centatook, of his arrival at that place on the 26th of April, from a short cruise in the Gulf of Mexico. He reports political matters in Cuba as exceedingly quiet. A large expedition is supposed to have sailed from Yucatan, consisting of a large steamer and several sailing vessels, and attempted to land men and arms for the Cubans on the south side of the Western Department, near Penoir del Rio. The Spanish Admiral had left Havana in his flag-ship, accompanied by several other vessels, in search of the party, but no news had been received from him. The transport having on board the political prisoners that left about a month ago, having put into Porto Rico for repairs, the Captain General of that Island has determined to send some of the passengers to San Aris and the remainder to Cadiz. The Cubans and Spaniards seem to be exceedingly quiet, and there have been no successes recently on either side. Nothing can be heard of the movements at present, but Admiral Huff states that he would continue to keep the Department informed of the facts and rumors that come to his knowledge, by every opportunity.

Col. Wm. P. Wood, chief of the detective force of the Treasury Department, having resigned, Maj. C. Whitely, of Boston, has been appointed to that office.

Gen. Geney, of Pennsylvania, and a delegation of the Philadelphia Union League, this morning had a long interview with the President.

A large number of persons thronged the anti-room during the afternoon, but very few obtained an audience.

A telegram was received at the War Department to-day from Austin, Texas, announcing that Brevet Capt. B. H. Harllauss, 1st Lieutenant 38th Infantry, was shot and instantly killed, while in pursuit of deserters from that regiment. The murderers have been captured and confined in Fort Bliss.

Ex-Senator Carlisle, of Virginia, had an interview with the President this afternoon.

Prof. A. Hall, now attached to the Naval Observatory here, has been ordered to the Pacific coast for the purpose of making observations of the eclipse of the sun on the 7th of August next. Mr. Joseph Rogers, a civilian employed in the Hydrographic office, has been assigned to duty as his assistant.

Commander W. Rodgers Taylor has been ordered to the command of the Northern Division of the Pacific Naval station, and will hoist his pennant on the Assippee.

Gov. Wells, of Virginia, in his interview yesterday with Grant, obtained no satisfactory information as to the time that the Constitution will be voted on in that State. This will not be determined until a thorough registration shall be completed, and Gen. Canby, who has not yet become acquainted with the political situation there, shall recommend the most convenient period for that purpose.

Maj. F. J. Powers, of Pennsylvania, has been appointed disbursing clerk of the Register's office of the Treasury Department, in place of Col. J. P. Burnside, who held the position under Register Jeffries. Col. Given, of Desmoines, has been appointed third Deputy Commissioner of Internal Revenue; S. E. Middleton, for twelve years past Cashier of the Treasury, will resign on the first of June and go into the banking business. After all the reports of the national banks shall have been received and digested for a general abstract, the Comptroller of the Currency will issue a general circular of instructions with regard to the manner of making reports under the new law, which is definitely understood by the banks, as shown by the response to the Comptroller's order of April 20th.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 5.—The World says that the Arago was some time since purchased by the Peruvian Government for $200,000, and sailed for St. Thomas with supplies for the Peruvian ironclads. The same paper says a Cuban expedition has sailed, but intimates that the Arago is not the vessel that carried it.

United States Marshal Balow has been engaged all day in endeavoring to learn the facts in the alleged sailing of a Cuban expedition last night, but caught nothing verifying the report.

The name of the vessel in which the Cuban expedition sailed was the Prerat. The captain of the tugboat Phillip states that he carried down the way to the Prerat 75 men, and that 150 more were conveyed by the tugboat Yankee. It was freely stated by the men that Cuba was their destination.

CANADA.

MONTREAL, May 5.—James Morrison & Co., retail dry goods dealers have suspended. Their liabilities are $125,000.

QUEBEC, May 5.—The trial for murder of H. J. Choloner, who shot Ensign Whittaker for seducing his sister, terminated last night. The jury were locked up until this morning, when they returned a verdict of "not guilty." Choloner was loudly cheered outside of the Courthouse.

OTTAWA, May 5.—A deputation of bankers had a conference to-day with Hon. John Rose, Finance Minister, in regard to the Government-Currency question. A series of resolutions were read, the purport of which was that the circulation ought to be preserved on its basis, and that the bank charters ought to be renewed with certain amendments calculated to give greater security to the noteholders, and depositors. These amendments have been agreed to by nearly all the bankers in the Dominion. Mr. Rose said he was not able to enter into a statement of his intentions, but would be prepared after the Budget was disposed of, to discuss this matter, to which the bankers replied that they had no doubt but that they would be able to meet the views of the Government, provided they were still permitted the privilege of issuing notes as at present.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, May 5.—The jewelry store of Giles Brothers, on Lake street, was robbed of $5000 worth of diamonds yesterday afternoon. Two men went into the store together and asked to see some spoons, and while the clerk's attention was directed to another part of the store, one of them seized the diamond tray. Neither of them have been discovered yet.

ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, April 5.—A fight occurred at Hays City, Kansas, on Monday, between a lot of negro soldiers of the 38th Infantry and the citizens, in which five citizens, among them United States Marshal Weis and a white soldier of the 7th Cavalry, were wounded. Some 500 shots are said to have been fired.

CAIRO.

[Special dispatch to the APPEAL.]

CAIRO, May 5.—The following is our port list since last report:

Passed—Snag boat Thayer, from Cincinnati to Arkansas river, at noon; Collier, Pittsburg to New Orleans, at 5 p m; R E Lee, New Orleans to Louisville, at 5 p.m.

The river fell twenty inches. Mercury 70°.

The Collier has a tow of coal. The Thayer is a light draught snag boat, built for small rivers, and goes to the Arkansas river to commence operations. The R. E. Lee had a full cabin to Cairo.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

NEW ORLEANS, May 5.—Departed—Mary Houston for Louisville, and Salado for Cincinnati.

CAIRO, May 5.—Up—Mary Forsyth, 1 a.m; R. E. Lee, 5 p.m. Down—Snag-boat Thayer, 6 a.m; Collier, 2 p.m.

The river fell 20 inches. The weather is showery.

ST. LOUIS, May 5.—Departed—Clarksville and City of Alton. Weather clear and very warm. The river is falling here and above.

LOUISVILLE, May 5.—The river is rising with 7 feet 10 inches the canal.

INDIANA.

MADISON, May 5.—The city election yesterday passed off quietly. It was the most hotly contested election that has occurred for years. The Democrats succeeded in re-electing their candidates for Treasurer, Clerk and Assessor, by an average majority of 207. The Council stands six Radicals to five Democrats, with a tie in the First Ward, which went Democratic at the last election by forty-three majority.

BOSTON.

BOSTON, May 5.—Thos. Drew was before the Supreme Court to-day on a writ of habeas corpus. Judge Gray said the Legislature had a perfect right to summon the prisoner to testify, and also in case of his refusal they had a right to punish him for contempt, and Drew was again remanded to the custody of the Sheriff.

The Executive Committee of the National Peace Jubilee have established a bureau of accommodation for securing to visitors good board and lodging at reasonable charges.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, May 5.—The Times this morning has another article on the Alabama Treaty, saying that the question is one of law, and not of feeling, and it remains to be shown that Great Britain can be held answerable for any infraction of law or excess over the ordinary practice of both countries.

Thos. Leacoy, late Chief Justice of Ireland, died yesterday at the advanced age of 93 years.

MADRID, May 5.—The Spanish journals maintain that the capture of the brig Mary Lowell was a legal act, and deny that the British Government, at the instance of the United States, has made any demand on Spain for the restitution of the vessel.

TELEGRAPHIC MARKETS.

New Orleans Market.

NEW ORLEANS, May 5.—Cotton easier. Middlings 28@28¼c. Receipts 840 bales; exports 1026 bales. Gold 35¾c. Sterling exchange 47½c. New York sight bills ⅛c premium. PUBLIC SALES
—OF—
REAL ESTATE
IN THE CITY
AND SUBURBS OF MEMPHIS

We have great pleasure in calling public attention, both at home and abroad, to the following list of property, which we have been directed by the owners to place on the market at Public Sale, being a selection from the most select business and residence property in Memphis and its vicinity.

Elegant Residence Lots on Adams Street.

We are directed by Mr. Brinkley to offer at public sale, that greatly admired and most desirable Residence Lot at the southeast corner of Adams and Lauderdale streets, at present occupied by Mr. Goodloe. The ground will be divided into three pieces, the middle lot embracing the Cottage Dwelling, and a vacant lot of ample size on either side.
Terms will be easy, with a liberal allowance to any who may wish to purchase for cash. This sale will take place on THURSDAY, MAY 13th, at 4 p.m., on the premises.

Large Peremptory Sale of Lots in Fort Pickering.

22 Lots in Block 50, bounded north by Walker street, east by Second, south by Coffee, and west by Washington streets. Also, 14 Lots in Block D—bounded north by Coffee street, east by Armstrong, south by Van Buren, and west by Carroll streets, upon the Plan of Fort Pickering, now included in the Corporation of Memphis, contiguous to the Jackson Monumental Mound, on beautiful rich and level surface, commanding a full view of the river and the city, and near the proposed location of the Memphis Dock Yard. No property in Fort Pickering can be regarded as more desirable or valuable. The titles to this property are perfect, not being involved in past or present litigation. The owner wishing to sell, is determined to meet the market as to price.
TERMS—Half cash, balance 12 months, WITHOUT INTEREST. This sale will be held on the premises, commencing at 10 o'clock on MONDAY, 17th May.

Main Street Store House.

On TUESDAY, May 18th, at 4 o'clock p.m., on the premises, we will offer, at public sale, that very valuable and centrally situated Storehouse and Lot, No. 241 Main Street, now occupied by L. & N. L. Lowenstein and next to the store of Lowenstein Brothers, corner of Main and Jefferson streets. This being one of the finest points for business on Main street, we hope to meet on the occasion a large representation of capitalists and business men who desire to compete for such valuable property. Size of lot 22¾ by 74½. Terms liberal, and announced at sale.

The Great Sale of Suburban Lots
—IN THE—
BUNTYN & TREZEVANT TRACT
Five Miles from the City,
On Memphis and Charleston Railroad,
ON THURSDAY, MAY 20.

To this sale we specially direct the attention of those who would make a pleasant combination of city and country life. We shall offer about ONE HUNDRED LOTS, varying in size from 4 to 10 acres, many of them directly upon the Railroad, and none of them more than the distance of a few minutes walk to a regular flag station upon the Road, giving the business and professional men, who follow their vocation in the city, the advantage of a retired and economical residence on a few acres of land in the country, with the loss of but little more time, and at much less expense in money, than to live on a few feet of ground in any part of the city. The different trains now running in and out of the city on this road, afford the opportunity of ingress and egress to and from the city every two or three hours during the day. Commutation tickets are sold to all the stations included in the lands offered in this sale at from 10 to 12½ cents, and the trip is made to the most distant point in 15 minutes from the city depot. Terms will be exceedingly liberal, the object being to induce the immediate settlement of the lands by a good population. Plans of the lands now at our office. The Avenues and Lots will be indicated, so that parties wishing to make examinations can do so with no other guide than a plan in their hands. The locality of the lands embraced in this sale has always been highly popular for its health and beauty, and the neighborhood is rapidly filling up with the best society.

PROFITABLE INVESTMENT

I OFFER FOR SALE TWO OF THE MOST central and eligible Stores in Memphis, situated on the west side of Main street, between Madison and Court streets, known as Nos. 279½ and 281 in the Walker Block. These stores are brick, four (4) stories high, with tin roofs—the upper stories finished and occupied as offices by good tenants. One of these stores is under lease for three years, which expires January 1, 1870, at $3000 per annum; the other at $2700; possession of which may be had, if required, on July 1, 1869. The offices will net from $1000 to $1500 per annum. This property will be sold free from all taxes and encumbrances up to day of sale. Title warranted. If not disposed of on private terms, will be offered at public sale, May 19, 1869. For terms apply to D. J. O'REILLY, Agent,
No. 518 Shelby street, or Lock-box 348.
Also, for sale, several Houses and Lots on Shelby street, between Union and Gayoso. ap29

DOOLEY'S CHEMICAL YEAST BAKING POWDER has stood the test for years, and stands to-day unrivaled. No ingredients enter into its composition but such as are perfectly harmless, and they are in such exact proportion as to produce the same results each time. With it any housekeeper who has good flour can make the best bread, cakes or pastry desired. If any of our lady friends have not yet tried it, we advise them to do so at once. It is not only the best Baking Powder in the market, but much cheaper, as it requires from one-third to one-half less than those of ordinary manufacture. Ask your grocer for DOOLEY'S BAKING POWDER, and you will use no other after one trial. my1

WANTED.—A First-class Pianist is open to engagements. Address F. H., Postoffice. my4

WANTED.—In every county in the State of Mississippi, and in the counties of Shelby, Tennessee, and Franklin, Alabama, a thorough, energetic man to take charge of and devote his entire attention to a good paying business. LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Democrats! remember the ward meetings to-night.

—Mr. Healy, agent for Mrs. O'Donovan, left yesterday for Nashville.

—The new race-boat of the Chickasaw Club is at Wade's bookstore.

—Gen. Boyd of the Memphis and Louisville Railroad, is at the Peabody.

—Uncle Billy Dardis, the clerk of the weather, told us to look out for clouds and rain to-day.

—The sky was as blue, the breeze as soft, and the sun as bright, yesterday, as the heart could wish.

—The thermometer last evening at half-past five o'clock, in Dr. Hoerner's store, stood at 86° Fahrenheit.

—Accounts from all parts of the State speak of the prospects of the wheat crop as most encouraging.

—The stage carpenter had a benefit at the New Memphis last night. It was moderately well attended.

—An "Educational Monthly" is spoken of as being the next candidate for starvation in the way of Tennessee periodicals.

—The Nashville papers say that Comptroller Blackburn has been successful in effecting the loan which he went North for. He was expected home last night.

—We were sorry to learn yesterday that Mr. Charles O. Faxon, of the Courier-Journal, is lying dangerously ill at Clarksville, Tenn.

—There is to be a grand juvenile concert at the Greenlaw Opera House next Wednesday, by Mr. Wm. Magoffin's singing class.

—A morning paper of yesterday says Col. Wisdom of the Jackson Tribune "arrived in town yesterday." That is news to the Colonel, who has been enjoying the hospitalities of the Peabody for a week or so.

—Mr. Chizzola, the elegant and obliging avant courieur of the Brignoli opera troupe, leaves this morning for Nashville, where the troupe perform next Friday and Saturday nights.

—The fishing season has again commenced, although it is as yet rather early for good sport. Two of our heavy weight mercantile sports went out in pursuit of the "finny denizens of the muddy deep" yesterday evening. We havn't heard what they caught.

—There was a magnificent display of celestial pyrotechnics last night, lasting from a little after sundown till midnight. The lightning was the kind denominated heat, and was incessant, lighting up the vast and gloomy masses of clouds in a grand and wildly beautiful manner.

—The Rads were rampant again last night, and the streets were ablaze with their torches and vocal with their howlings until after midnight. The Lewis faction took the rag off the bush, the Hunterites being content with buzzard roost and a meager pyrotechnic display of five cent rockets.

—The prospecting party of Col. M. J. Wicks, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Bugnion and others, which started out on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad yesterday morning, will go on through to Chattanooga, and will probably be absent until Friday night. The wires were working badly last night or we should have had some news from them.

—There was no registration yesterday. The books have gotten somewhat behindhand and the Registrar was engaged in bringing them up. The balance of this week until Saturday will be taken up in selecting and nominating judges of election, tellers, etc. On Saturday there will be registration at White's station, and on Monday next the office in town will be open for the registration of white voters.

—John A. Logan, commander in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, has issued his circular, calling upon all the State Grand Commanders to issue their orders for the annual decoration of the Federal cemeteries, which occurs on the 30th inst. As that happens to fall on Sunday it is left to the discretion of local commanders to celebrate it or the day preceding.

—The Knoxville Press and Herald says that Capt. Grisham and S. A. Bovell, of the Jonesboro Flag, passed through that city Saturday on their way to Nashville to take charge of the Press and Times. Capt. Grisham, says that paper, will assume control of the business department, and Mr. Bovell will be the political editor.

—The negro named Lee, who was arrested on Monday by detective Sam Ireland, on charge of murder, killed a man named Raleigh who owned and run a trading boat. The murder was committed on Friday night at Phillips' Bayou on the St. Francis River, Ark. It appears that Lee first struck Raleigh in the head with some blunt instrument and killed him. He then robbed him of his watch and other valuables, and after rifling the boat, drew his victim to the gunwales and threw the body overboard. The remains were found early on Saturday morning.

—The sale of seats for the season of the Brignoli troupe commenced very lively yesterday morning, and by noon nearly all the first and second row dress circle were taken. The season will open with Donezetti's sweet opera Don Pasquale, with Brignoli in the role of "Ernesto," Mlle. Durand as "Norini," (in which she is said to excel), Petrilli as Dr. Malatesta, Sarti as the jolly Don Pasquale, and Locatelli as the Natony. The performance will commence with the "lower scene" from Trovatore.

—To-day is Ascension Day or Holy Thursday, a festival commemorating the glorious ascension of the Messiah into Heaven, "triumphing over the Devil and leading captivity captive," and "opening the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers." It occurs forty days after Easter Sunday—that being the number of days which the Savior passed on earth after the resurrection. The observance of the day is one of the earliest, if not the earliest of the Church, having commenced as early as A. D. 68. It is a feast of obligation, and there will be mass at St. Peter's Church at 6, 7 and 9 o'clock a.m., and vespers at 7½ o'clock p.m.

—The name of the distinguished Irish lady who is to read at the New Memphis on Friday night is Mrs. Jere. O'Donovan. Rossa is the name of the little Irish town whence her husband came, and which he always affixed to his name in newspaper articles as a distinguishing mark from the numerous other Jeremiah O'Donovans that wrote for the Irish press. Ignorance of this fact has caused many ridiculous mistakes, and it ought to have been explained to the American press long ago.

—St. Peter's Sunday School picnic comes off to-day at James' Park. Everybody who goes to picnics at all knows how delightful is every rural entertainment that is given under the auspices of St. Peter's Church, or the societies belonging to it. Order always reigns supreme, and every arrangement and device that can conduce to the rational enjoyment of each guest are the distinguishing marks of their picnics. All who wish a delightful day should not fail to go out.

—A fire broke out about half-past one o'clock yesterday morning in the two-story frame building situated on Pontotoc extended, owned and occupied by T. L. Beard, Esq. We are sorry to say that the distance of the house from the engine houses gave the fire such headway, that when the steamers got on the ground the house was too far gone to save it. The flames spread so rapidly that the furniture in one room is all that was saved. The loss amounts to about $4000, on which there was $2500 insurance.

—The many "hifalutin" and high sounding names given to little bits of places—the Romes, Athens, Londons, Viennas, Parises, which are "down on the maps," and consist, maybe, of a postoffice, courthouse, jail, and grocery store, (the first three often combined in one building) have always furnished tourists with more or less food for satire and ridicule. We have a plan to propose by which in many such cases the "eternal fitness of things," may be attained, and at the same time a semblance of the original names presented. To illustrate it we will take say a puny little stream in Mississippi known as Dog River. This might be called Puppy Creek. Guntown might be changed to Pistolville, and so on. How will it do?

—The spring meeting over the Nashville Course, which commenced Monday, is, according to the Nashville papers, the most brilliant that has taken place in years. The Union and American of Sunday, in speaking of the "breezes" and "scrapes" given the different stables in training for the races during the past week, says:

"Exciting indeed are these preliminary trials of speed, but when stable opposes stable and "Greek meets Greek," (as will be this week) then comes the tug of war; for Tennessee will meet Kentucky, and Kentucky will meet Ohio—and which shall go down? In treading the grounds of this, one of the oldest courses in the United States, and recalling to memory the many recollections that are clustered around its scenery, and the many memorable events that have taken place within its limits, which were witnessed by the wealth and intelligence of the olden days, can we not indulge the hope that the sons and daughters of so noble an ancestry will support, the former by their aid, and the latter lend attraction by their presence to a sport so noble and innocent."

—On this day, May 6th, the church anciently held a festival celebrating the marveilous deliverance of St. John the Evangelist from a barbarous and cruel death. It is still marked in the calendar as Sanct. Joh. Evan. Ante Port. Lat., or St. John before the gates of Latina. This is in commemoration of the persecution of St. John by Domitian, before whom he was accused of being an atheist and a perverter of the religion of the Roman empire. He was condemned to be sent to Rome, and there, before the gate called 'Latina,' was thrown into a chauldron of burning oil, in which he is alleged to have remained a considerable time, though with Divine interposition he not only escaped without injury, but came forth with renewed health and vigor. Notwithstanding this miracle, Domitian continued his persecutions and Saint John was banished to a desolate island in the Archipelago, and sentenced to dig in the mines among criminals. It was in this deplorable condition that he wrote his majestic Apocalypse, (though it was not until nearly three hundred years afterward, when its authenticity had been settled by the testimony of Polycarp Justin Martyr, Irenaeus, Clement and Tertulian, that it was admitted into the sacred canons)

Meeting of the Entertainment Committee.

The Entertainment Committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce with reference to the Commercial Convention, met at the Chamber at four p.m. yesterday, pursuant to adjournment.

Mr. J. J. Rawlings, Chairman of the Committee of the Seventh Ward, reported the following named parties who will accommodate the number indicated by the figures opposite their names:

J. J. Rawlings, 2; Mrs. Sarah Greenlaw, 1; W. Y. Cirode, 3; Dr. R. B. Maury, (selected), 2; T. B. Farnsworth, (selected), 2; E. M. Apperson, (selected), 4; G. V. Rambaut, 2; F. S. Davis, (selected), 4; G. Falls, 2; M. P. Jarnigan, 2; J. C. Neeley, (selected), 2; P. M. Patterson, 4.

Maj. W. J. Sykes proposed to entertain two more delegates.

The Chairman of the Third Ward Committee reports progress.

The following letter from Col. H. Clay Conde, was read and the offer accepted:

MEMPHIS, May 5, 1869.

Capt. Geo. Mellersh, Chairman Entertainment Committee:

Dear Sir: I find it impossible to meet you at four o'clock p.m. to-day, but will do my duty as one of the Entertainment Committee. I have arranged for seven guests, and will undertake to do so for as many more at my own expense, as I anticipate meeting at least that number of old acquaintances during the days of the Convention. Yours truly,

H. CLAY CONDE.

A resolution was adopted, requesting the different sub-committees to report Wednesday next, without fail.

Maj. F. W. Royster was appointed Chairman of the Eighth Ward Committee, vice Mr. Stebbins resigned.

The Committee on Entertainment then adjourned until the 12th inst., at four o'clock p.m.

ARKANSAS.

THE RADICALS BEAT FOR ONCE.

Sheriff Harden Reinstated in his Office.

Cowardly Action of the Circuit and Probate Courts of Crittenden County.

We have chronicled since the beginning of the troubles in Arkansas many an act of outrage, oppression, injustice and tyranny, on the part of the courts and the sworn officers of the law. We now have the pleasing duty of chronicling one single act of justice. Let us hope that it is the beginning of a new order of things!

Our readers are familiar with the facts in connection with the act of usurpation, with which the infamous Clayton put the crowning touch to the shameless deeds of his militia in Crittenden county, the displacing, without one word in justification of the act, of Mr. Harden, the duly elected Sheriff and putting in his place Maj. Mayne, of the militia—a creature, more infamous than his master—if such a degree of infamy were possible.

Mr. Harden went to Little Rock as soon as the deed of usurpation was committed, but failed to obtain redress, and returning hither, determined to have recourse to the law—a forlorn hope indeed, He immediately engaged the professional services of Messrs. Brown & Lyles, gentlemen whose names are intimately and most honorably connected with the history of the "troubles" in Arkansas, and who early took the boldest and most determined stand in hostility to the outrages and infamies of Clayton and his myrmidons.

These gentlemen went to Crittenden county a few days ago, and after entering suit against Mayne for the possession of the office, applied to the Circuit Court for a writ enjoining Mayne from the exercise of the duties of the sheriffalty until the question was settled as to who was entitled to the office. The Circuit Judge dilly-dallied a while, and at last refused. They then applied to the Probate Court for the same, and met with a like result.

Not daunted, indeed meeting with nothing but what was expected by them, Messrs. Brown & Lyles applied to the Supreme Court of Arkansas, and to the honor and glory of that Court be it said, enough justice was left in it to grant at once the prayer, and enjoined Mayne from the exercise of the office or functions of Sheriff, and forbidding him to interfere with Harden in the exercise of the same, until the matter can be thoroughly tested in the Courts as to who has the legal right to the office. This insures Harden the office for two years. Great credit is due to Messrs. Brown & Lyles for the manner in which the case was managed, and we hope they may always be as lucky when they are battling for the rights of a down-trodden people.

A CARD.

Mr. Hanson is not a Radical nor a Radical Candidate.

MEMPHIS, TENN., May 5, 1869.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

My attention has been called to the use that has been made of my name in connection with a proposition made some days ago to place me in nomination for prosecuting attorney of the Criminal Court, on what is known as the Hunter ticket. Those who know me well need no explanation, but those who do not, might think it strange that any man pretending to respectability should get his name mixed up with that of the graceless, Godless vagabonds of that particular political party or faction. And although it is, and was, as much matter for surprise to me as it could possibly be to my friends, yet I have not been able to arrive at any definite conclusion as to the causes that brought it about, and can only state the facts and let each draw their own conclusion.

On Thursday night before the meeting of the "Buzzard Roost" Convention, I was going home in company with a few friends, about 12 o'clock, and when near the alley south of Union street, on Main street, P. D. Beecher came up to me, requesting me to let him speak to me. We halted a moment and Beecher said: "We had a meeting this evening at which your name was mentioned as a suitable candidate for Prosecuting Attorney of the Criminal Court on the Hunter ticket; you are the unanimous choice of the meeting, but I did not know whether or not you would accept the nomination and qualify, but if you will, you are my man." This is the exact language of Beecher. I unhesitatingly and peremptorily declined. Judge Hunter in his card promises to give my denial that "he" had made any such proposition. I don't know what the relations between him and Beecher are, but Beecher, in my absence a few days ago called to get a statement from me. He has it above as it occurred and as he will remember well.

Judge Hunter says in his card, that he does not know me. I thank God that he does not, and I am sorry that his man Beecher does even by sight.

It is contrary to my ideas of gentility and good-breeding to indulge in personal epithets. But I desire Judge Hunter, Mr. Beecher, and all others like them to know, that I am a native Southern citizen, having no sympathy or feeling in common with vile carpet baggers or viler renegades who, for the sake of office and plunder, seek to trample under foot the intelligent, tax-paying portion of the community, and by pandering to the prejudices and superstition of the ignorant, and the continuance of infamous franchise laws, to keep themselves in place and power.

I thank the Republican Committee of Shelby county for their complimentary notice of my action in this matter, and I assure them that they assign the true reason for it.

The further use of my name by Hunter and Beecher I shall regard as a personal offense, not to be redressed through the columns of a newspaper.

SHORT CUT TO THE GULF.

Report of the Committee of the Chamber of Commerce on the Ship Canal, Connecting the Mississippi and the Gulf.

On the first of February last the New Orleans Chamber of Commerce adopted a resolution advocating the construction of a ship canal from the Mississippi river, seven miles below Fort Jackson, to Breton Island pass, where at all seasons of the year there is thirty feet of water. The length of the proposed canal is six miles, and the estimated cost $2,500,000. Its completion would render New Orleans approachable at all times, without interruption, for vessels drawing thirty feet of water, and the bars at the passes of the Mississippi would thus be entirely avoided. A copy of the proceedings of the New Orleans Chamber was received by our Chamber sometime since and referred to a committee. The following is their report:

MEMPHIS May 1, 1869.

To the Chamber of Commerce, Memphis, Tenn.

The Committee to whom was referred the communication of the New Orleans Chamber of Commerce of the 8th March, with the printed report on the subject of a ship canal from some point on the Mississippi river below New Orleans to the Gulf of Mexico, beg leave to report that they have read the report of the New Orleans Chamber of Commerce attentively and given the subject as much thought and investigation as their opportunities permitted, and do not hesitate to declare their entire conviction of the great importance of the proposed ship canal to the commerce of the South and West, in fact to all within reach of the Mississippi river and its tributaries.

The appropriations that have been heretofore expended in keeping open the mouth of the Mississippi river for the large class of vessels, seem to have had no lasting effect, but only a temporary relief. And your committee, regarding as they do, the proposed ship canal, as an enterprise eminently national in its character and importance, and well worthy of the favorable legislation of a just and enlightened government, beg to recommend that the subject of this report be brought prominently before the Commercial Convention, shortly to assemble in Memphis, to the end that it may be freely discussed by the eminent commercial men expected to be present, and ultimately to the thought and action of Congress. Respectfully submitted,

WM. R. MOORE,
W. S. PICKETT,
Committee.

MRS. O'DONOVAN (ROSSA).

Meeting of Citizens—Arrangements for her Reading.

At a meeting of the friends and admirers of the above named distinguished and accomplished lady, held at Hibernian Hall, corner of Adams and Main streets, on the evening of the 3d instant, Col. M. Magevney, Sr., was called to the chair, and James Reilly, Esq., appointed Secretary.

The Chairman having stated the object of the meeting, portrayed in language of fervid and pathetic eloquence the noble and heroic career of this talented lady since the incarceration of her noble and patriotic husband in a British dungeon, for the crime of loving Ireland, his native land, "not wisely, but too well;" for having the manliness to publish to the world her wrongs and sufferings under British misrule and oppression, and for asserting her right to enjoy freedom and self government.

On motion the Chair appointed the following committees to perfect arrangements, and for the purpose of making her stay in Memphis both pleasant and agreeable:

Reception Committee—Prof. P. L. Mitchell, John Loague, Esq.; Mathew Murphy, Esq., John Lilly, Esq., J. J. Murphy, Esq., Mr. J. M. Keating, Maj. J. J. DuBose, Col. M. C. Gallaway, J. L. SUPREME COURT.

Condensed Decisions of the Supreme Court, Reported for the Appeal by H. Clay King, Esq.

No. 2. Holt vs. Pettigrew—Corrected The reporter made an error in the report of this case. The Court held that where judgment has been recovered against A. & B., as alleged partners of C. & D., in a subsequent suit against C. & D. on the same alleged partnership contract, A. & B. are competent witnesses for the defendants C. & D., to prove that no partnership existed.

No. 7. McAlpin vs. Reeder, from the McNairy Circuit.

Facts: In October, 1861, the defendant in error, Reeder as administrator of McCoy, had a public sale of the goods and chattles of the intestate. At that sale the plaintiff in error, McAlpin, bid off a lot of cotton belonging to the estate, part of it being picked out and part in the field. By the terms of the sale the cotton was to be delivered when all was picked out, and the purchaser was to execute his note, with security, for the price, payable twelve months from the sale. The cotton was knocked off to McAlpin at two cents per pound. In March, 1862, Reeder notified McAlpin that the cotton was ready for delivery, and requested him to come and get it. In August, 1862, McAlpin came and took the cotton away, but Reeder then insisted that he should be paid the price of the cotton at that time, which was six cents per pound, but McAlpin contended that he was entitled to the cotton at the original price of two cents per pound. Reeder sued McAlpin in assumpsit.

Held: That if the cotton was delivered upon a mutual mistake as to the price to be paid, and the minds of the parties had not in fact met, each one supposing that the other had agreed to a price to which he had not agreed, then no contract existed. But if the vendee takes the property voluntarily, knowing that there is no contract as to the price to be paid, he must be held to have consented to the contract which the law implies when property is sold without stipulation as to price, to-wit, that he shall pay its reasonable value at the time. And, if the vendee takes it, knowing that the vendor understands the contract to be for a particular price, he must be held to have agreed to pay that price.

The Circuit Judge charged the jury that if McAlpin did not go and receive the cotton within ten days after notice that it was ready, and comply with his part of the contract, the contract would be abandoned by him, and that if he received the cotton after that time, whether there was any other contract or not, that the law would make him pay for it at whatever the price of cotton was when he received it. This is an error. If under the circumstances shown in this record the purchaser failed within a reasonable time after notice to complete the purchase, the vendor had the right to treat the contract as rescinded. But it should have been left to the jury to say whether the plaintiff elected to treat the contract as rescinded, or whether he waived the right so to treat it, and elected to deliver the cotton upon the original contract, and whether any new contract was made, and if so, what.

No. 8. Autry vs Coffman. From the Hardin Circuit Court. Trespass for taking property brought by Coffman vs. Aubry; verdict and judgment in favor of Coffman for $836, and appeal in error by Aubry. The proof showed that Aubry, in April, 1862, went into the town of Hamburg with a squad of Confederate cavalry, and while there were active in taking property from citizens at that place, and that he was armed. The proof also showed that Aubry was compelled by the command to act as a guide, and that he did not go willingly. After the command left Hamburg the property of Coffman was taken. There is no testimony that Aubry was present when the property (two mules) of Coffman was taken, or that he aided in the trespass; but the testimony showed that he was present both before and after the property was taken, and that he returned to his home the same evening. The Circuit Judge charged the jury that if they should be of the opinion, from the proof that Aubry was with the soldiers willingly, and was aiding and abetting in the tort that was committed at Hamburg, that such proof though not conclusive, would create a presumption that he was aiding and assisting in the tort committed on Coffman's property, and would impose on Aubry the onus of showing by proof that he was dissenting to the tort committed at the house of Coffman; that if Aubry was forced to go with the soldiers as a guide, and went reluctantly in the first instance, but afterwards assented to the torts and participated therein, then he would be a wrong-doer and liable; that it was not necessary for the proof to show that Aubry was present at the house of Coffman at the time the tort was committed; if he was present with any portion of the command, he would be constructively present, and responsible for their acts. Held: That the charge is erroneous. The fact that Aubry was along with the troops as a guide at Hamburg, and participated in the torts committed there, raises no presumption that he participated in the wrongful act in taking the property of the plaintiff. It was a circumstance that might be proved in connection with other facts in the case submitted to the jury in their determination of the fact whether the defendant participated in the tort. If the defendant was not a part of the command who were engaged in a common, unlawful purpose, to make him liable, the proof must show that he participated in the unlawful act sued for; and although he may have been present, unless he aided and assisted in the trespass he could not be held liable, being no part of the command.

The Circuit Judge in his charge referred to a case tried by Judge Houck, in East Tennessee, where a citizen was held liable in damages, who told Confederate troops that there was an old Union man living one mile off, and that he had a good horse, and the troops went and took the horse. This action is calculated to mislead the jury, and is error.

No. 9. Herring vs. Russell. From the Hardin Circuit Court.—Facts: A government officer of the army took from the defendant forage to the amount of $1000 in value. The defendant agreed with the plaintiff to pay him $100 if the plaintiff would obtain for the defendant a proper government voucher for the forage. The plaintiff obtained a voucher and delivered it to the defendant, which on presentation to a Quartermaster, he declined to pay, alleging as a reason for his refusal that the voucher was defective. But after a slight modification the voucher was paid to the defendant. A fac simile copy of the voucher was produced and proved on the trial. The court charged the jury that, as a matter of law, a voucher exactly like the copy proved on the trial was a valid and proper voucher, and that the plaintiff was entitled to recover if he complied with his contract in procuring such proper voucher for the defendant.

Held: That the charge was correct. The voucher being a written contract, it was the duty of the court to pronounce on its validity as a matter of law, and not leave the same to the jury as a matter of fact. Judgment for plaintiff affirmed.

No. 10. Tate vs. Mayor and Aldermen of Memphis. Facts: A new Board of Aldermen was elected. There was a vacancy as to one of the Board, an Alderman elect declining to accept immediately upon the election of the new Board. The members elect met and qualified and proceeded to fill the vacancy by electing Tate. This was done before the permanent chairman was elected. A few days thereafter, Tate elect took the oath of office. A few days thereafter the permanent chairman was elected. It was then considered by the Board that the election of Tate was void, and the Board proceeded to fill the original vacancy, and another was then elected. Tate then proposed to act as an Alderman and tendered his services, but was not allowed to serve in the Board. Tate, after the Aldermanic year expired, brought this action to recover his salary, or compensation for his services tendered and refused.

Held: That the first election of Tate was valid, it not being indispensable under the Memphis City Charter, or by the rules of law, to the validity of the election that there should be a complete Board of Aldermen organized with a permanent chairman.

The tender by the plaintiff of his services to the Board and their refusal give the plaintiff his right of action for damages, but does not of itself give him the right to recover the whole amount of the salary as the measure of damages. The damages will be assessed by the jury under the rules heretofore settled by this Court in case of contracts for personal services.

A Vigilance Committee or Judicial Reform.

MEMPHIS, May 4, 1869.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

Your editorial this morning urging upon our people the necessity of judicial reform, is timely and to the point. "Professional jurors" and "straw bail" men drove the citizens of San Francisco to organize Vigilance Committees in 1857 and 1856. It was a desperate remedy for a terrible disease in the body politic The cure was effected, leaving the body shattered and broken and insecure from the effects of a remedy so demoralizing But the laws have been enforced in that city from that day to this in a manner infinitely better and more efficient than they would have been if there had been no Vigilance Committee. If the present management continues in our courts, will we not be driven to adopt the same severe remedy, and would it not injure our city more than it did the young and vigorous metropolis of the Pacific? To prevent such a calamity is it not the duty of every good citizen or resident in the city, to work diligently and ceaselessly to accomplish that end? All who reflect a moment will answer this question affirmatively. And it is just as clear to every reflecting mind that we have no other means to accomplish this end except to vote at the approaching election. To do this we must REGISTER. Many of us cannot do this. The law forbids it. But there is a population in our midst, who can register, amply sufficient to bring about the reform, and they would do it willingly if they were fully convinced of the importance and necessity of the case. Let our people then all see to it that this registration is effected. Let us all urge our neighbors who are qualified under the law to REGISTER, and continue to urge them until they do it. Our time and energies and influence cannot be better employed. It is an imperative duty which we owe to ourselves and our families. Any one who has read your paper and will reflect seriously on the subject can arrive at no other conclusion. Let us do our duty then, and REGISTER, or get our friends to register at once.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Common sense rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthropic philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing, let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhea, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas, from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. These celebrated STOMACH BITTERS have doubtless created as much sensation in the community for their remarkable cures as any other medicine extant. It is a fact that in the minds of many persons a prejudice exists against what are called patent medicines; but why should this prevent you resorting to an article that has such an array of testimony to support it as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Physicians prescribe it; why should you discard it? Judges, usually considered men of talent, have and do use it in their families; why should you reject it? Let not your prejudice usurp your reason to the everlasting injury of your health. It is the only preparation of the kind that is reliable in all cases, and it is therefore worthy of the consideration of the afflicted. The BITTERS are pleasant to the taste, agreeable in their effects, and altogether valuable as a tonic or remedy for indigestion.

ARRIVED IN MEMPHIS

FROM NEW YORK CITY,

ARRIVED AT THE

PEABODY HOTEL,

Where he can now be daily consulted until further notice.

The practice of Dr. Lighthill is exclusively devoted to the relief and cure of CATARRH, DEAFNESS, IMPAIRED SIGHT, DISCHARGES FROM THE EAR, CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, and all diseases of the HEAD, THROAT and CHEST. He refers with pleasure and pride to the extraordinary success which has attended his system of treatment in New York City during the past fifteen years, and during his professional sojourns in Cincinnati, St. Louis and Louisville, and recently in Nashville, Tenn.

Below he submits, with confidence, a few of the many flattering credentials which he has received from some of the most reliable and well known sources in acknowledgment of benefits received. Many more of a similar nature, and from equally reliable sources, may be seen at this office.

From S. H. Tobey, Esq., President City Bank.

MEMPHIS, TENN., May 3, 1869.

Dr. LIGHTHILL comes to me, introduced by James S. Ogden, Esq., President of the Peoples Bank, Nashville, Tenn., whose wife he successfully treated. As Mr. Ogden is an intimate personal friend of mine, whose statements may be strictly relied upon, I take pleasure in recommending Dr. Lighthill to the confidence of my friends and the community at large.

S. H. TOBEY.

From Messrs. Wm. R. Moore & Co., Wholesale Dry Goods Merchants, No. 299 Main Street.

MEMPHIS, TENN., May 2, 1869.

Dr. LIGHTHILL comes, introduced to us by Mr. R. B. McLean, of Nashville, Tenn., who testifies to having received great benefit from the Doctor's treatment. We have known Mr. McLean for many years, and his statements are entirely reliable. W. R. MOORE & CO.

From Geo. D. Prentice, Esq., Editor of the Louisville Journal.

DR. LIGHTHILL—DEAR SIR: I am sorry to learn that you contemplate leaving Louisville at the end of the present week. I earnestly wish that your engagements elsewhere might permit you to remain here for a time longer.

Your sojourn among us, Dr. Lighthill, will be long remembered by our people. It has been a blessing to many. You have treated me and a female member of my family with great success. You seem to understand, as by intuition, the character of a malady and its best remedy. You have a multitude of patients in this city, and I have not seen or heard of one to whom you have held out the promise of relief without rendering it. Your entire practice among us has been a brilliant success, and I cheerfully recommend you to my many friends South, and the public at large, as a physician deserving the utmost confidence.

Hoping that you may live long to be a blessing to additional thousands of the afflicted, I am, very truly, yours,

GEO. D. PRENTICE.

From E. A. Collins, Esq., of Malan, Tenn.

TO THE EDITORS OF THE APPEAL:

GENTLEMEN—Dr. Lighthill expects to visit your city soon, and for the benefit of the suffering I wish to say, through you, to your very extensive acquaintance in this and other Southern States, that Dr. Lighthill can do all for the suffering that can be afforded by skill, science and a comprehensive experience.

I placed under his treatment, over two years since, my niece, Miss Eliza Mitchum, of McLemoresville, Tenn. She had been suffering from a child, with a rising in the head, which had for years emitted through the ear a very ugly and offensive corruption. Her case had been treated by the best physicians of the country, and had baffled the skill of them all. Dr. Lighthill kept her under his immediate charge for ten days and then sent her home with remedies. She used the remedies as directed, and in three months was entirely well, and still continues in excellent health.

It may be proper to state that when Miss Mitchum went under Dr. Lighthill's treatment she was unable to walk, and, as her friends thought, was rapidly approaching death.

If you have any friends among your extensive acquaintance suffering with any chronic disease, you may safely recommend them to Dr. Lighthill. Yours, very respectfully,

E. A. COLLINS.

From Capt. Silas F. Miller, Proprietor of the Galt House, Louisville, Ky.

TO MY FRIENDS AND THE PUBLIC:

It affords me great satisfaction to be able to testify to the success of Dr. Lighthill in the treatment of deafness, and express my sense of obligation to him.

My hearing had been impaired for a number of years, at times to such an extent as to embarrass me seriously. Dr. Lighthill, under whose care I placed myself, has removed the difficulty completely, and restored me to perfect hearing.

SILAS F. MILLER.

From Dr. W. S. Reid, of Franklin, Tenn.

FRANKLIN, Tenn., February 19, 1869.

DR. LIGHTHILL: The case of ear disease in my family, lately treated by you, was one of some twelve or fifteen years duration, involving, as was thought, a total destruction of hearing in the ear affected. It gives me pleasure to bear testimony to the rare skill with which you performed a necessary operation, as well as the judiciousness of your subsequent treatment, which has resulted, I am happy to believe, in the entire cure of the disease, and as complete a restoration of hearing as the case admitted of.

Respectfully,
W. S. REID, M.D.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
MEMPHIS, May 5, 1869.

FINANCE.

The Exchange market is well supplied and rates about as they were yesterday, but with a tendency to more ease in selling and a light demand.

In Bonds and Stocks no transactions were reported. There is a good demand for Mississippi and Tennessee 1st and 2d mortgage bonds and Memphis and Charleston stock.

City Scrip is firm. Dealers would buy readily at our quotations below. We are unable to give selling prices accurately, as dealers are not disposed to part with what they hold.

County Warrants are dull and not easily sold. The demand is light.

Police Scrip is weak and unchanged.

There is an active demand for Gold and rates are nearly as high as in New York. The demand is from brokers and from the interior—$10,000 were taken at 135 to-day, in three lots, by a broker.

The Liverpool market at the opening to-day was irregular, with Uplands 11⅝d; Orleans 12d. It was unchanged at noon and closed dull, with sales of 8000 bales. Uplands 11⅝d; Orleans 12d.

In New York it opened dull and nominal. Low Middlings 27¾c; Uplands 28¾c; Good Middlings 29¾c. At 2 p.m. it was also dull and low grades declining. Low Middlings were off ¼c, higher grades the same as at the opening and closed dull and nominal. Low Middlings 27½c; Uplands 28¾c; Good Middlings 29¾c. Sales to spinners 1650 bales. To speculators 240 bales. For export 585 bales. A sale of 300 bales Low Middlings for June delivery reported at 27¾c, and 100 for July at 27½c.

Our market was quiet. The inquiry was mostly for fine grades, which were held firm, though there was a disposition to concede about ¼c on low cottons. Our stock is reducing steadily, one packet going out last night (after the day's statement was made up) with 1100 bales. We quote as follows:

GAS WORKS, May 5th.

River fell 1½ inches in past 24 hours Below high water mark as established by Government, 1 foot 2 inches. Below high water mark of 1867, 2 feet 2 inches.

CHAS. GOODWIN.

The decline goes on very slowly at this point. The condition of the upper rivers will be seen in our dispatches. The Cumberland and Tennessee are again rising, owing to late rains, but will not materially affect the decline. The Arkansas is falling, and White river also is going down, but slowly. The weather changed last night, and heavy clouds threatened rain. It will be seen by reference to our table above that only at Key West and Havana was it as warm as here in Memphis. Our telegraphic dispatches give the latest river news. The mails failed yesterday from the Northwest, consequently we are without our usual exchanges from that quarter. The Cincinnati Commercial of yesterday says: Here the river has risen 7 inches during the 24 hours ending last night, with 20 feet 7 inches in the channel at 6 p.m. To-day there will be 81 feet under the Covington Bridge for passing steamers.

OIL CITY, May 3.—Allegheny stationary, with 45 inches water.

MORGANTOWN, May 3.—Monongahela stationary, with 12 feet water.

BROWNSVILLE, May 3.—Monongahela falling, with 17 feet water.

PITTSBURG, May 3.—River rising, with 12 feet by the Monongahela marks.

MARIETTA, May 3.—River 12 feet 3 inches and swelling very slowly.

EVANSVILLE, May 3.—The river has fallen 10 inches to-day.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Darling left for Cincinnati with 1100 bales of cotton, the best trip for many weeks up stream.

The Bismarck was due last night; 400 bales of cotton awaited her for New Orleans.

The Belle St. Louis was due from above last night. She brings a delegation of the St. Louis Grain Association on their way to New Orleans. The Belle leaves this evening for Cairo and St. Louis. Alex. Zeigler is master.

The Geo. W. Cheek left for Friar's Point light.

The fine steamer W. A. Caldwell, Capt. Rube Haynes, leaves this evening for Pine Bluff and Little Rock. She connects with the Fort Smith packets, and makes all way landings on the Arkansas. Ned Outlaw is the popular chief

The elegant Liberty, Capt. Conley, leaves for White river on Saturday next.

The Silver Moon came in from Cincinnati with an excellent trip, and leaves on Saturday for all ports along the Ohio river. She is gay and very popular, and is commanded by Ben Merrielees.

The Strader had a good trip of freight and added here 400 bales of cotton for New Orleans.

The Julia for St. Louis, had a light trip of freight and but few passengers.

The Louisville for New Orleans, had 1200 sacks of corn and a fair passenger list.

The Natoma is the regular White river packet to-day. She leaves at 5 p.m. and makes all landings to Augusta. She is a popular passenger steamer, and is commanded by Capt. Wm. Ashford who is well known by every one of our citizens. Messrs. Darby and Smither are her clerks.

TRUST SALE.

Trustee's Sale.

BY virtue of a deed of Trust to me executed by Dominic Zweifel and George Waechter I will, on Saturday, the 22d day of May, A. D. 1869, on the premises, at the Eagle brewery, lately carried on by Zweifel, Hargan & Co., proceed to sell at public sale, to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described real property, to-wit: The said Dominic Zweifel and George Waechter's undivided two-thirds in a lot of land lying in the county of Shelby, State of Tennessee, and the city of Memphis, described as follows: Beginning at the east side of an alley between Poplar and Bass streets, commencing at the South line of Geo. Waechter's lot and running South on said alley thirty-two feet; thence eastwardly seventy-five feet; thence southwardly again one hundred and twenty-six feet, more or less, to the bayou; thence eastwardly seventy-five feet; thence northwardly one hundred and fifty-eight feet, more or less, with Nicholas Huppert's line; thence westwardly one hundred and fifty feet with George Waechter's line to the beginning, it being the same lot of land sold to Geo Waechter by John P. Schlocker, 28th October, 1863 and part of lot sold to George Waechter, by Nicholas Huppert on the 6th day of April, 1863. Also the said Zweifel & Waechter's two thirds in the barrels, casks, kettles, engines, mashing machines, coal beds, malt mill and wagons employed in the brewery of Zweifel, Hargan & Co.

The undivided third part of George Waechter will be first sold, and if that does not bring sufficient to satisfy the said trust, then the undivided third of said Zweifel will be sold.

The title to above described property is presumed to be good, but I sell only as trustee.

JAMES BACHMAN, Trustee.

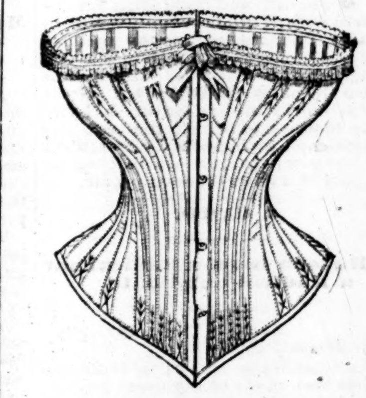

And at the same time and place I, the undersigned, assignee of said Dominic Zweifel, bankrupt, will proceed to sell the equity of redemption of said Dominic Zweifel in and to the above described property. Terms cash.

WM. Y. CIRODE,
Memphis, April 20, 1869 [ap22] Assignee.

WATCHES.

WALTHAM

Watches!

THE extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen—the most exacting of watch-wearers—has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 400,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enable them to produce the watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch, merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

We are now selling Waltham Watches at less prices in greenbacks, than the gold prices before the war. There is no other manufacture of any kind in the United States of which this can be said.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watchmaking originating in this country, or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:

The invention and use of a center-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main-springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's Patent Pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movement from dust, and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch, is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public.

To prevent imposition, buyers should invariably demand a certificate of genuineness. No watches retailed by the Company.

FIRST CLASS WOOD COOK STOVE

"FAVORITE,"

TIN LINED, VENTILATED OVEN, FOUR SIZES.

The most perfect and reliable Stove now in the market.

They are expressly adapted and arranged to suit the wants of the Southern people.

Thousands of them have been sold, and are in daily use, without a single complaint of their operation.

Three years of constant use has proven them to be the most perfect bakers and economizers of fuel now made.

There is no risk in buying a "FAVORITE," as they are warranted to be superior to all others, in every particular.

They embrace in their construction all the improvements known in modern first-class Stoves for burning wood.

They are made of the best No. 1 Charcoal Iron, are heavy plate, strong and durable, and have more merit and greater cooking facilities for the price than can be found in any other stove.

It will pay all interested to call and see them, and examine testimonials of their superiority before buying any other stove.

A full supply of all the sizes, together with the celebrated Extension-top Stove "CARDINAL," kept at wholesale and Retail by

THE CELEBRATED CHAMPION,

WITH WROUGHT IRON OVEN,

THE GREAT STOVE OF THE DAY.

THE CHAMPION is heavy and durable.
THE CHAMPION is admirably fitted.
THE CHAMPION has a mammoth Oven
THE CHAMPION has a Portable Reservoir, porcelain lined inside—will not rust.
THE CHAMPION has a Sliding Damper on the top of stove, which completely controls heat of the stove.
THE CHAMPION is simple in its construction, and Very easily managed.
THE CHAMPION is rapidly going into general use.
THE CHAMPION is extensively sold.

THE CHAMPION is made of the best quality of Hanging Rock Charcoal Iron, universally admitted to be the best iron in the world; and the only cast stove made with wrought iron oven—the bottom and back oven and plates being made of heavy wrought iron, so heavy that they cannot be broken or cracked, and the heat cannot warp them. Call and examine THE CHAMPION before purchasing. This Stove is only for sale by
